

PNC Bank Takes to the Court at Miami Open to Celebrate “Rallying for Small Business” Participating Small Business Owners

MIAMI, March 11, 2026 – PNC Bank and the Miami Open organizers announced the small business owners selected to participate in the debut of “Rallying for Small Business Presented by PNC Bank.” This new initiative is designed to recognize and support local small businesses through marketing and promotion exposure during the tournament.

The program will spotlight three outstanding local businesses that each receive a comprehensive Miami Open marketing package including on site tournament promotion, digital recognition, VIP tickets, participation in a Hard Rock Stadium event and a once in a lifetime coin toss experience on the court during the Miami Open.

“Small businesses are the key driver of economic success across our communities. The Miami metropolitan area alone is estimated to support approximately three million jobs across employment sectors driven by small businesses, from leisure and hospitality to health care and more,” said Cressman Bronson, PNC regional president for South Florida. “As Presenting Sponsor of the Rallying for Small Business initiative, we’re proud to elevate local businesses who contribute so much to the economic vitality of Southeast Florida.”

The 2026 Rallying for Small Business participating businesses are:

- Danto Builders, LLC is a general contractor and design-build firm with over 45 years of experience delivering commercial, healthcare, restaurant, municipal and redevelopment projects across South Florida. Recognized as Broward County Business of the Year, founders Debbie and Craig Danto are deeply engaged in the community and with several charities reflecting their commitment to the Greater Fort Lauderdale region.
- Graziano’s Group is a family-owned and operated hospitality company founded on a proud Argentine heritage and generations of culinary passion. Through its restaurants and markets, the group has become a trusted name known for authentic flavors, premium ingredients and exceptional service.
