

PNC Bank Names Nick Willis Regional President For Greater Alabama

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 19, 2017 – PNC Bank, N. A. has appointed Nick Willis regional president of its Greater Alabama region. He succeeds Brian Bucher, who effective Jan. 1, 2018, will lead PNC's efforts as regional president of a newly created "Port Cities" market, further expanding the team of corporate and commercial bankers in Jacksonville, Florida, Charleston, South Carolina and Savannah, Georgia. Willis was most recently head of Corporate Banking in Greater Alabama.

"Nick is an accomplished leader and Alabama native who knows this region well because he's lived, worked and gone to school here," said Lou Cestello, head of PNC Regional Markets. "He is well poised to lead the team as we continue to deliver PNC throughout the state, and we are confident in his ability to continue PNC's legacy of localized community and client engagement."
