Agreement with ATM provider FCTI gives PNC customers access to surcharge-free withdrawals across the country

PITTSBURGH, July 25, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- PNC Bank, N.A. announced today an agreement with ATM provider FCTI, Inc., to offer PNC customers access to withdraw cash surcharge-free at over 8,000 ATMs owned and operated by FCTI in participating 7-Eleven® convenience store locations nationwide. In addition, PNC customers may check balances on PNC checking and savings accounts on the ATMs at these locations.

This action supports PNC's national expansion of retail banking launched in October 2018. PNC's expansion strategy is led with an array of digital banking capabilities, including PNC Virtual Wallet® and the new PNC High Yield Savings account, which are available to new customers who reside beyond PNC's traditional market of 19 states and Washington, D.C.

PNC customers using the ATMs at 7-Eleven will be met with PNC branded screens and topper messaging. This unique custom messaging is delivered throughout the ATM transaction using FCTI's patented Marketing and Branding Application (MBA) software.

"Now PNC customers will have easier access to their cash wherever they live, work or travel throughout the United States," says Karen Larrimer, head of PNC Retail Banking and chief customer officer. "With the addition of the FCTI/7-Eleven ATMs, we have created easy and convenient options for customers across the country to access their cash without incurring an ATM surcharge fee."
