Rahwa Teklai To Lead PNC Private Bank Team In Central PA

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 6, 2022 – PNC Bank announces the promotion of Rahwa Teklai to senior vice president and market leader for PNC Private BankSM in Central Pennsylvania. Based in Lancaster, Teklai will be responsible for leading a highly experienced team in Central Pennsylvania to deliver PNC Private Bank capabilities and solutions to help clients reach their financial goals.

Teklai joined PNC in 2017 as a senior insurance and wealth strategist. She adds extensive experience to the team in the areas of estate, tax and insurance planning and most recently served as a wealth director for the PNC Private Bank in the Philadelphia market.

Teklai graduated with a bachelor's degree in finance from The Pennsylvania State University Smeal College of Business and holds the Certified Financial PlannerTM designation.

Actively involved in the community, Teklai is on the board of directors for Leadership Lancaster and the Lancaster Estate Planning Council. She volunteers for Girls on the Run Lancaster as a SoleMate and was named a 2020 Volunteer of the Year by Girls on the Run International.

Earlier this year, PNC Asset Management Group announced that it had unified its personal wealth businesses under the PNC Private Bank brand umbrella, signaling investments in talent and technology, and an aggressive expansion of the local delivery of personal wealth products and services to clients across PNC's growing national footprint.

PNC Bank, National Association, is a member of The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. (NYSE: PNC). PNC is one of the largest diversified financial services institutions in the United States, organized around its customers and communities for strong relationships and local delivery of retail and business banking including a full range of lending products; specialized services for corporations and government entities, including corporate banking, real estate finance and asset-based lending; wealth management and asset management.
