Kristen Del Grosso to Lead PNC Private Bank in Central PA

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 31, 2024 – PNC Bank announced the promotion of Kristen Del Grosso to senior vice president and market leader for PNC Private Bank® in Central Pennsylvania. Del Grosso will be responsible for leading a highly experienced local team to deliver PNC Private Bank capabilities and solutions that help clients reach their financial goals throughout the broader Harrisburg, Lancaster, York and State College areas.

Del Grosso joined PNC Private Bank in 2014 as a senior banking advisor. She brings extensive industry experience to the team, ensuring every client benefits from a full, tailored complement of investment, trust, financial planning and private banking services. Previously she managed the Mechanicsburg and State College PNC Private Bank offices.

“Kristen is a highly accomplished and well-tenured leader, who has been with PNC for more than a decade,” said Jim Hoehn, PNC regional president for Central Pennsylvania. “I am confident our Private Bank clients will continue to receive excellent and dependable guidance under her leadership.”

She graduated with a bachelor’s degree in business administration and finance from Susquehanna University and holds the Certified Financial PlannerTM designation.

Actively involved in the Central Pennsylvania community, Del Grosso serves on the board of directors of the Whitaker Center for Science & the Arts. She serves as vice chair of the advisory committee for United Way of the Capital Region’s Women's Leadership Network and she is co-chair of Ladies Night Out 2025 benefitting the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central PA.
