

PNC Bank Introduces PNC Spend WiseSM, A No Annual Fee Credit Card Offering A Purchase APR Reduction to Encourage Responsible Credit Habits

New card incentivizes good financial practice via a suite of competitive features

PITTSBURGH, May 12, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- PNC Bank announced today the launch of its latest credit card [PNC Spend WiseSM Visa[®]](#), designed to reward clients' responsible and healthy financial habits. This unique credit card is built to encourage responsible financial management through its associated purchase APR reduction program for eligible cardholders who meet timely payment and spend requirements.

"Through extensive research and direct client feedback, we identified a gap in the market: while many credit cards incentivize spending, few actively promote and recognize responsible debt management," said Nate Bacon, head of Credit Cards at PNC Bank. "PNC Spend Wise addresses this void, as it's built on the principle that financial responsibility should be rewarded just as much as spending. It's a fresh take on credit cards."

Key features and benefits include:

- Purchase APR Reduction Program: Cardholders can earn a 2-percentage point reduction to their purchase APR when they pay on time and have at least $3,000 in net purchases post to their account over 12 billing cycles¹;
- $25 in annual digital subscription credits: PNC Spend Wise provides up to $25 in annual subscription service credits for Spotify[®], Netflix[®] and/or Disney+[®];

"PNC Spend Wise reflects PNC's commitment to designing products that meet our clients' needs and help them to build healthier financial habits, while maximizing their financial rewards," said Jeff Hofmann, head of Retail Lending at PNC Bank. "Our clients prioritize benefits and savings and PNC Spend Wise has been designed to give them both by turning wise money habits into tangible rewards."

Last year, PNC introduced PNC [Cash Unlimited[®] Visa Signature[®]](#), a credit card that provides 2% cash back on all eligible purchases. The success and positive response to the PNC Cash Unlimited credit card confirmed that clients value straightforward, meaningful rewards. PNC Spend Wise builds upon this philosophy by offering a simple and consistent way to reward responsible financial habits.

The credit card is available to existing PNC customers in all branches, online and via the PNC mobile app. New clients can apply at any PNC branch.
