PRNewswire
NEW YORK

BlackRock Advisors, Inc. and the Board of Directors of the BlackRock 2001 Term Trust, Inc. (formerly NYSE: BTM; CUSIP: 092477108) are pleased to announce that the final liquidation amount for BTM is $10 per share. BTM has matured as scheduled and liquidated its assets today, June 29, 2001. Shareholders of record on June 15, 2001 will receive today a liquidating distribution of $10 per share. Additionally, all shareholders of record on June 15, 2001 will receive a distribution payable today representing the June monthly dividend of $0.0041667 per share.

BTM was a closed-end bond fund launched in August 1992 at $10 per share with the investment objective of returning $10 per share upon termination in June 2001.

BlackRock, BTM's investment advisor, created the first term trust in 1988 to provide investors in fixed-income securities one investment which would provide monthly income while having a final maturity date to retrieve their principal. This feature is especially valuable to investors who need their assets at a specific time, including those who need to pay a child's college tuition or make a down payment on a car or home. BlackRock's first maturing term trust, BBT, which matured on December 23, 1998, distributed $10.02 per share, while BlackRock's second term trust, BNN, matured on December 16, 1999 and distributed $10.15 per share. BlackRock's third term trust, BTT, matured on December 29, 2000 and distributed $10 per share.
