PNC Capital Markets, a member of The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. (NYSE: PNC), has hired Michael Zubasic as a managing director on its top-ranked public finance team along with Jason DiMartini and Rebecca Mulvay.

With more than 20 years of investment banking experience, Zubasic returns to PNC Capital Markets as a managing director and acting manager of its public finance office in Pittsburgh. He will lead the Government group for the Western region, which serves Pittsburgh and Erie, and report directly to Charlotte McLaughlin, chief executive officer and president of PNC Capital Markets.

"These three individuals add strength to our talented and seasoned team of banking professionals and reflects PNC's commitment to this business, providing financial advisory services as well as underwriting and distributing debt securities for government, health care, non-profit and educational issuers," McLaughlin said.

Zubasic's professional experience includes director of capital projects and debt management for Allegheny County, in southwest Pennsylvania, and senior analyst with Moody's Investors Service. His investment banking experience includes a previous tenure of 11 years at PNC as well as with RBC Dain Rasucher and Mellon Financial Markets.

DiMartini brings nearly a decade of experience in investment banking in the public finance arena, including director, Grant Street Group (formerly doing business as Grant Street Advisors and MuniAuction); vice president of Fixed Income Banking, RBC Dain Rauscher; and vice president of Public Finance, Mellon Financial Markets. He also returns to PNC as a managing director. Mulvay's experience in public finance dates back to 1995. She rejoins PNC as a senior associate.

The largest bank headquartered in Pennsylvania, PNC operates four public finance offices across the Commonwealth with locations in Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Wilkes-Barre.

PNC Capital Markets is the marketing name used for investment banking and capital markets activities conducted by The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc., through its subsidiaries, PNC Bank, National Association, and PNC Capital Markets, Inc. PNC Capital Markets, Inc., is not a bank and is a distinct legal entity from PNC Bank, National Association. Services such as public finance, underwriting debt securities, securities sales and trading, mergers and acquisitions advisory services, private placements, securitization of assets and the arrangement of syndicated loans are offered by PNC Capital Markets, Inc. Derivatives and foreign exchange products are offered through PNC Bank, National Association.
